Sr. Technical Consultant Sacramento

Description

- Bachelor's degree
- 5+ years of experience in IT project management using Microsoft and open source technology stacks, and Mobile frameworks
- 5+ years consulting experience with State of CA agencies
- 10+ years experience in the positions of technical lead, system analyst, software architect and/or software developer at least 10 years in large organizations
- 5+ years experience leading and developing a project involving JavaScript frameworks
- 5+ years experience leading and developing automation test cases using Test Automation Frameworks such as Robot Framework
- 3+ years experience leading, architecting and developing applications on cloud platforms
- Demonstrated ability to deliver a completed project
- Strong communication skills

Responsibilities

- Review and recommend any potential revisions to applicable project SDLC documents to incorporate all applicable activities.
- Review and recommend any potential revisions to applicable project management document to include risk, issue, budget, and scope change management that may have technology/technical dependencies.
- Facilitate, coordinate and monitor the activities, which have technical impacts / dependencies, among Subject Matter Experts (SMEs), Contractors and stakeholders.
- Ensure on-time completion with quality of solution development/implementation per design specification and project requirements/objectives.
- Assist in planning, managing, and ensuring the execution of technical implementation or software development activities to align with the IT standards, policies, and best practices established by Client's Enterprise Architecture (EA) unit, or those of industry's standards
- and best practices.
- Build automated testing capabilities using test automation framework such as Robot Framework and technologies such as VBScript, JavaScript.
- Write code to create/modify scripts and programs to automate tests
- Execute manual and automated tests.
- Identify and document any potential negative impacts to the technical architecture/design, especially, any technical impacts/risks that may result in a lower quality solution

Qualifications

Hiring organization
Lume Consulting Group

Industry
Government Consulting

Job Location
Sacramento
Remote work from: USA

Date posted

Desirable Technical Qualifications

1. Five (5) or more years of experience leading and developing a project involving JavaScript frameworks.
2. Five (5) or more years of experience providing IT consulting services to a California State agency.
3. Five (5) or more years of experience leading and developing automation test cases using Test Automation Frameworks such as Robot Framework.
4. Three (3) or more years of experience leading, architecting and developing applications on cloud 5.

Contacts

info@lumecg.com